

Binish Ahmed, Director, Ethics & Compliance at DXC Technology, UAE

A UK qualified lawyer with over 14 years of diverse experience across private practice and in-house roles within the IT and Telecoms industry. Specializing in Ethics & Compliance with prior legal transactional and corporate law experience.

Binish has strong international exposure having practised law in the UK, Southeast Asia and the Middle East allowing her to navigate complex legal landscapes with ease.

Currently serving as the Ethics & Compliance officer of the Europe, Middle East Africa region for DXC Technology, Binish manages the regional implementation of the DXC Ethics & Compliance program including anti-bribery processes and third-party due diligence, policy implementation, risk assessments, investigations, training and communications.

In addition, Binish is developing expertise in regulatory compliance (AI, Privacy, Cybersecurity) and AI governance and is working towards the AIGP certification.

DXC Technology is a global company listed on the NYSE, with over 130,000 employees providing mission critical IT services in over 70 countries.