

Hend Elagamy - Vice President Legal at Madinet Masr

As the Vice President Legal at Madinet Masr, I lead the legal function for a diversified conglomerate with operations in various sectors. With over 15 years of experience in corporate and commercial law, I have a proven track record of delivering effective and innovative legal solutions for complex and high-value business matters across multiple jurisdictions and markets.

In my previous roles, I successfully handled contracts, transactions, disputes, and compliance for leading companies in the pharmaceutical, cement, and investment industries, such as Hikma Pharmaceuticals, Sinai Cement Co., and Elsewedy Capital Holding. I also advised senior management and boards on legal risks, opportunities, and strategies, and supported the development and implementation of policies and procedures. I have a dual Bachelor of Laws degree from Ain Shams University and Université Jean Moulin (Lyon III), and I am fluent in Arabic, English, and French. I am passionate about providing excellence, integrity, and teamwork in my work, and I am excited to contribute to the growth and success of Madinet Masr.
