

Kirit S. Javali, Founder of Chambers of Kirit Javali and erstwhile Partner of Jafa & Javali

Kirit Javali read law at the University of Leeds, U.K. and thereafter was called to the Bar from Gray's Inn in 1996. Subsequently, he underwent training in London and with the Mumbai law firm of Crawford Bayley & Co. amongst other firms.

Kirit S. Javali is the Founder of Chambers of Kirit Javali and erstwhile Partner of Jafa & Javali, Advocates, New Delhi for over 20 years. His chambers has advised and engaged with clients in Corporate Transactions, , Intellectual Property, Tech Law, Bio Technology and Dispute Resolution.

He has acted for companies in domestic and ICC international arbitration proceedings conducted in New Delhi / London /Singapore. He regularly appears and argues matters before the Supreme Court of India, and in various High Courts within India.

He has published articles and spoken in conferences in India and overseas on a regular basis covering themes involving Arbitration, Mediation, Dispute Resolution, & Intellectual Property Laws.