

Megha Agarwal, Director & Assistant General Counsel at Cvent

Megha Agarwal is an accomplished legal professional with over 18 years of experience in corporate law, specializing in complex commercial transactions, cross-border legal operations, corporate governance, and compliance. Currently serving as Director & Assistant General Counsel at Cvent, Megha leads a high-performing legal team across the APAC, Middle East & Africa regions. She provides strategic legal counsel to senior management, managing legal and regulatory matters, including data protection, cybersecurity regulations, and cross-border transactions.

In her previous roles, Megha has built a strong reputation for leading legal functions at renowned companies like HCL Technologies, Aspect Software, and Ariba SAP. Her expertise spans negotiating enterprise-level SaaS contracts, mergers and acquisitions, and managing global intellectual property portfolios. Throughout her career, Megha has been instrumental in driving compliance initiatives and mitigating legal risks across multiple jurisdictions.

An advocate for workplace integrity, Megha chairs the Internal Complaints Committee, ensuring robust governance and employee relations. She is also a passionate mentor, providing legal training and thought leadership to regional teams and contributing to the professional development of future legal leaders.

Megha holds an LLM in IP and Corporate Laws from Mumbai University, where she was a rank holder. She is also a graduate of Amity Law School, New Delhi, with a first-class distinction in her LL.B Hons, and holds post-graduate diplomas in Intellectual Property Rights and Cyber & IT Laws. Megha's leadership, strategic vision, and expertise in navigating complex legal landscapes have earned her numerous industry accolades and awards.