

Sudhanshu Roy Senior Associate at Foley Hoag

Sudhanshu Roy is a member of the International Litigation & Arbitration practice. His practice focuses on international commercial arbitration, contract drafting and advisory as well as arbitration related litigation before US courts. He represents private and sovereign clients before arbitration panels administered under the ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICC and SIAC Arbitration Rules.

Sudhanshu was named by Legal500 – USA as a “Rising Star” in Dispute Resolution: International Arbitration (2022) and a “Key Lawyer” In Dispute Resolution: International Arbitration and International Litigation (2021). Sudhanshu is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (F. CI Arb).

Before joining Foley Hoag, Sudhanshu worked as a Legal Advisor with the International Investment Division of Department of Economic Affairs, Government of India, where he was instrumental in the drafting and development of the India’s Foreign Direct Investment Policy. Prior to joining the DEA, Sudhanshu was an Associate with the Government Affairs and Trade Policy team at Amarchand & Mangaldas & Suresh a Shroff & Co., New Delhi for four years where he worked on international investment policy issues and WTO disputes for the Government of India.